

The St George's Day Quiz

Countries

St George is the patron saint of which country in the UK?

England

On what date does England celebrate St Georges date?

23 April

Which hymn is traditionally sung on St Georges Day?

Jerusalem

What form does the flag of St George take?

A red cross on a white background

Which of the following countries is St George the patron saint, Georgia, Palestine, Portugal, Malta, and England.

All of them

St George was born in which part of the world?

Middle East, Cappadocia, part of modern day Turkey.

St George is thought to have died on 23 April of what year?

303 AD

How long did St George live in England?

He never lived there, and in fact never even visited the country.

What profession was St George?

A soldier in the Roman army

St George is often depicted slaying a dragon, in what year did he slay one?

He didn't - they did not exist.

The St George's Day Quiz

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)
