

December 2016 News Quiz (Round 5)

News

Cuba has offered to repay its debt of £222m to the Czech Republic with what?

Bottles of Rum

The head of the IMF has been in court accused of negligence in connection with a 2008 arbitration panel settlement. What is their name?

Christine Lagarde

What is said to have triggered the prison riots in Birmingham this week a) cost cutting - no xmas dinner b) cold showers c) lack of exercise breaks

b) cold showers

Who were crowned Strictly Come Dancing champions in the final show of the series?

Ore Oduba and Joanne Clifton

The US doctor who invented the manoeuvre used to help victims of choking, has died aged 96. What was his name?

Henry Heimlich

Andy Murray won the BBC Sports Personality of the Year award, but who came second?

Alistair Brownlee

The Charity Commission has ruled that which organisation cannot be considered to be a religion?

Jediism (worship of the mythology of Star Wars)

What was the big business idea of the winner of The Apprentice tv show?

Luxury cakes