

Whispering Death (Round 168)

General Knowledge 2017

Which castle, used to hold prisoners of war in WWII, is situated in a town near Leipzig?

Colditz

'Whispering Death' was the name given to which fast bowler and commentator?

Michael Holding

Sodium bicarbonate is often better known as what?

Baking Soda

The theme tune from the BBC childrens programme Animal Magic is now used for which satirical comedy show?

W1A

All Saints Day is celebrated in which month?

November

Former Governor of California, Arnold Schwarzenegger, was born in which country?

Austria

In the acronym NASA, what 2 words do the letter A represent?

Aeronautics and Administration

The high wispy white filament clouds take their name from the latin word Cirrus, but what does this mean in English? a) a lock or tuft of hair b) threads c) horse tails

a) a lock or tuft of hair

Which series was centred on a man destined to failure due to his own pomposity and who lived at 23 Railway Cuttings, East Cheam?

Hancock's Half Hour

Which 'Pass' connects Afghanistan and Pakistan

Khyber Pass

Whispering Death (Round 168)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)
