

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 270)

2020 General Knowledge

Questions

- 1) The 'Girl with Kaleidoscope eyes' features in which Beatles song?
- 2) The Labrador Peninsula is in which country?
- 3) Which common phrase originates with British naval hero Horatio Nelson's refusal to use his good eye when looking through a telescope at oncoming opponents?
- 4) Which value coin was introduced to Britain in 1998?
- 5) The red rose is the symbol of which British political party?
- 6) Which comic strip dog has been called "the world's most famous beagle"?
- 7) 'Dreams From My Father' is the title of a 1995 memoir from which US politician?
- 8) Taking it's name from the Greek word for 'to give what is due', who is the Greek god of Revenge?
- 9) By population, which is the largest city in Yorkshire?
- 10) Figaro is a barber and character in which Rossini opera?

Answers

- 1) The 'Girl with Kaleidoscope eyes' features in which Beatles song?

Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds

2) The Labrador Peninsula is in which country?

Canada

3) Which common phrase originates with British naval hero Horatio Nelson's refusal to use his good eye when looking through a telescope at oncoming opponents?

'Turn a blind eye'

4) Which value coin was introduced to Britain in 1998?

Two pound coin

5) The red rose is the symbol of which British political party?

Labour

6) Which comic strip dog has been called "the world's most famous beagle"?

Snoopy

7) 'Dreams From My Father' is the title of a 1995 memoir from which US politician?

Barack Obama

8) Taking it's name from the Greek word for 'to give what is due', who is the Greek god of Revenge?

Nemesis

9) By population, which is the largest city in Yorkshire?

Leeds

10) Figaro is a barber and character in which Rossini opera?

The Barber of Seville