

Food and Drink Quiz (Round 24)

2020 Food and Drink

Published: 23 Aug 2020

Another round in one of our most popular categories.

We now have literally hundreds of questions on food and drink of all types written especially for our users and all for Free!

All the questions are available to use in your next Pub quiz or you can just play along yourself.

Check out all our other quizzes on the Categories page

Questions:

- 1) What are 'Angels on horseback'?
- 2) What is the main ingredient for the German Blutwurst?
- 3) The beetroot soup with sour cream garnish known as Borscht is from which country?
- 4) Which country is home to the Napa Valley wine growing region?
- 5) The Newcastle Brown Ale brand of beer is owned by which European brewing company?
- 6) Old Speckled Hen is what type of beverage? a) Bitter b) Lager c) Stout
- 7) Lincolnshire sausage is flavoured with which herb?
- 8) The wine region of Marlborough produces almost three quarters of which southern hemisphere's country's wine?

Answers:

1) What are 'Angels on horseback'?

Oysters wrapped in bacon

2) What is the main ingredient for the German Blutwurst?

Blood

3) The beetroot soup with sour cream garnish known as Borscht is from which country?

Russia

4) Which country is home to the Napa Valley wine growing region?

U.S.A.

5) The Newcastle Brown Ale brand of beer is owned by which European brewing company?

Heineken

6) Old Speckled Hen is what type of beverage? a) Bitter b) Lager c) Stout

a) Bitter

7) Lincolnshire sausage is flavoured with which herb?

Sage

8) The wine region of Marlborough produces almost three quarters of which southern hemisphere's country's wine?

New Zealand