

True or False Quiz (Round 5)

2021 General Knowledge True or False Quiz Questions

Published 30th June 2021

Below are a series of statements and all you have to do is decide whether they are true or false, good luck!

- 1) The Darts player Martin Adams has a nickname of 'Foxy'
- 2) A cocktail of brandy, dry vermouth, sweet vermouth, triple sec and Pernod is known as a 'Fluffy Navel'
- 3) Roberta Joan Anderson is the original name of singer/songwriter Joni Mitchell.
- 4) Babouche is a term for a headscarf worn by a Russian peasant.
- 5) The South American dish, Ceviche, is made from clotted unpasteurized cream.
- 6) Little Gem is a variety of apple.
- 7) Ottawa is the capital of Canada.
- 8) The troposphere is the lowest of the atmospheric layers.
- 9) Esméduna is the Roman name for the area of Liverpool.
- 10) Agent Orange was the codename of Otto van de Shloot, a Dutch spy in WWII.

Answers

---

True or False Quiz (Round 5)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)

---

1) The Darts player Martin Adams has a nickname of 'Foxy'

False (Wolfie)

2) A cocktail of brandy, dry vermouth, sweet vermouth, triple sec and Pernod is known as a 'Fluffy Navel'

True

3) Roberta Joan Anderson is the original name of singer/songwriter Joni Mitchell.

True

4) Babouche is a term for a headscarf worn by a Russian peasant.

False (Babushka)

5) The South American dish, Ceviche, is made from clotted unpasteurized cream.

False (marinated raw fish)

6) Little Gem is a variety of apple.

False (Lettuce)

7) Ottawa is the capital of Canada.

True

8) The troposphere is the lowest of the atmospheric layers.

True

9) Esméduna is the Roman name for the area of Liverpool.

True

10) Agent Orange was the codename of Otto van de Shloot, a Dutch spy in WWII.

False (A herbicide used by the US in Vietnam with devastating effect)

True or False Quiz (Round 5)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)

---