

Geography Travel Quiz (Round 11)

2021 Geography

Questions:

- 1) Albuquerque is the largest city and Santa Fe is the capital of this US state, the country's fifth-largest by size. What is the name of the state?
- 2) The Little Mermaid statue by Edvard Eriksen sits on the promenade of which Scandanavian capital city?
- 3) Which Italian island is the largest island in the Mediterranean Sea?
- 4) Which African country entirely surrounds the enclaved country of Lesotho?
- 5) The 1964 and 2020 Olympic Summer Games were held in which Japanese city?
- 6) Which US city is known for being the home of the US automobile industry?
- 7) In which US city would you find the Bellagio, Luxor and Venetian hotels?
- 8) Which city beginning with 'L' is the third largest city in France?

Answers:

- 1) Albuquerque is the largest city and Santa Fe is the capital of this US state, the country's fifth-largest by size. What is the name of the state?

New Mexico

- 2) The Little Mermaid statue by Edvard Eriksen sits on the promenade of which Scandanavian capital city?

Copenhagen

- 3) Which Italian island is the largest island in the Mediterranean Sea?

Sicily

4) Which African country entirely surrounds the enclaved country of Lesotho?

South Africa

5) The 1964 and 2020 Olympic Summer Games were held in which Japanese city?

Tokyo

6) Which US city is known for being the home of the US automobile industry?

Detroit

7) In which US city would you find the Bellagio, Luxor and Venetian hotels?

Las Vegas

8) Which city beginning with 'L' is the third largest city in France?

Lyon