

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 316)

2021 General Knowledge

Questions:

- 1) Art, Artie and Archie are all common nicknames for which male name?
- 2) The Royal Albert Dock is found in which UK city?
- 3) Shane, Brian, Mark, Kian and Nicky made up which Irish boyband?
- 4) Nicky Henderson, Paul Nicholls and Mick Channon are all well-known names in which field?
- 5) John Bull is a national personification of which country?
- 6) Which British painter, grandson of Sigmund Freud, died in July 2011?
- 7) The clownish servant Launce and his dog Crab appear in which Shakespeare play?
- 8) Footballer Kenny Dalglish won 102 caps for which country?
- 9) In 2018, twelve boys and their football coach were rescued after two weeks in a flooded cave situated in which country?
- 10) Andy Coulson acted as Director of Communications for which British Prime Minister?

Answers:

- 1) Art, Artie and Archie are all common nicknames for which male name?

Arthur

- 2) The Royal Albert Dock is found in which UK city?

Liverpool

3) Shane, Brian, Mark, Kian and Nicky made up which Irish boyband?

Westlife

4) Nicky Henderson, Paul Nicholls and Mick Channon are all well-known names in which field?

Racehorse Trainers

5) John Bull is a national personification of which country?

United Kingdom/England

6) Which British painter, grandson of Sigmund Freud, died in July 2011?

Lucien Freud

7) The clownish servant Launce and his dog Crab appear in which Shakespeare play?

The Two Gentlemen of Verona

8) Footballer Kenny Dalglish won 102 caps for which country?

Scotland

9) In 2018, twelve boys and their football coach were rescued after two weeks in a flooded cave situated in which country?

Thailand

10) Andy Coulson acted as Director of Communications for which British Prime Minister?

David Cameron