

True or False Quiz (Round 7)

2022 General Knowledge True or False Quiz Questions

Below are a series of statements and all you have to do is decide whether they are true or false, good luck!

- 1) Zaha Hadid is a well known architect whose projects include the London Aquatics Centre.

- 2) Sandro Botticelli is famous for his painting 'The Adoration of the Magi'.

- 3) The Royal Oak, situated in North Yorkshire, is the highest pub in Britain.

- 4) The Cairngorms is the largest National Park in Britain.

- 5) Christopher Wren's tomb has an inscription in latin which means 'Reader, if you seek his monument, look around you'

- 6) It is generally accepted that the 30th wedding anniversary is celebrated with a gift of Ruby.

- 7) Christopher Lloyd played the part of Gomez in the 1991 film The Addams Family.

- 8) Jimmy Wales and Larry Sanger founded YouTube in 2005.

- 9) The American president Jimmy Carter was also a peanut farmer.

- 10) The first name of the legendary Western gunfighter Doc Holliday was actually John.

Answers

- 1) Zaha Hadid is a well known architect whose projects include the London Aquatics Centre.

True or False Quiz (Round 7)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)

True

2) Sandro Botticelli is famous for his painting 'The Adoration of the Magi'.

False (Brueghel)

3) The Royal Oak, situated in North Yorkshire, is the highest pub in Britain.

False (Tan Hill Inn)

4) The Cairngorms is the largest National Park in Britain.

True

5) Christopher Wren's tomb has an inscription in latin which means 'Reader, if you seek his monument, look around you'

True

6) It is generally accepted that the 30th wedding anniversary is celebrated with a gift of Ruby.

False (Pearl)

7) Christopher Lloyd played the part of Gomez in the 1991 film The Addams Family.

False (Uncle Fester)

8) Jimmy Wales and Larry Sanger founded YouTube in 2005.

False (Wikipedia)

9) The American president Jimmy Carter was also a peanut farmer.

True

10) The first name of the legendary Western gunfighter Doc Holliday was actually John.

True