

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 324)

2022 General Knowledge

Questions

- 1) What is notable about the Nutshell pub in Bury St Edmunds?
- 2) Actress Carey Mulligan is married to which musician with the initials MM.
- 3) Who was the American politician who had the middle name of Fitzgerald?
- 4) On which part of the body would one wear a Cravat?
- 5) What title did actress Priyanka Chopra win in 2000?
- 6) What is the capital city of Switzerland?
- 7) What was the Roman name for England?
- 8) What runs from Edale in Derbyshire to Kirk Yetholm in the Borders?
- 9) The mnemonic HOMES refers to what?
- 10) Which child prodigy and mathematician who created one of the first adding machines in 1642, also had a computer programming language named after him.

Answers

- 1) What is notable about the Nutshell pub in Bury St Edmunds?

It is the smallest pub in England

2) Actress Carey Mulligan is married to which musician with the initials MM.

Marcus Mumford

3) Who was the American politician who had the middle name of Fitzgerald?

John F Kennedy

4) On which part of the body would one wear a Cravat?

Neck

5) What title did actress Priyanka Chopra win in 2000?

Miss World

6) What is the capital city of Switzerland?

Bern (Berne)

7) What was the Roman name for England?

Albion

8) What runs from Edale in Derbyshire to Kirk Yetholm in the Borders?

Pennine Way

9) The mnemonic HOMES refers to what?

The Great Lakes (Huron, Ontario, Michigan, Erie, and Superior)

10) Which child prodigy and mathematician who created one of the first adding machines in 1642, also had a computer programming language named after him.

Blaise Pascal