

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 328)

2022 General Knowledge

Questions

- 1) What does a Bibliophile collect?
- 2) What is the name for a silk or cotton square with a spotted pattern tied around the head or neck?
- 3) Pecorino cheese is made from the milk of which type of animal?
- 4) Rabat is the capital of which African country?
- 5) Cheltenham Green Top, Crimson Globe, and Nutting's Red Globe are all types of which vegetable?
- 6) Which country has the longest coastline?
- 7) If someone from Western Australia talked about 'The Fremantle Doctor' to what would they be referring?
- 8) The Romans referred to this northern town as Lunecastrum, but what do we now know it as?
- 9) The 1960's dispute known as the 'Cod War' took place between which two countries?
- 10) Americans call it an Alligator Pear, but what is it known as in the UK?

Answers

- 1) What does a Bibliophile collect?

Books

2) What is the name for a silk or cotton square with a spotted pattern tied around the head or neck?

Bandana

3) Pecorino cheese is made from the milk of which type of animal?

Sheep

4) Rabat is the capital of which African country?

Morocco

5) Cheltenham Green Top, Crimson Globe, and Nutting's Red Globe are all types of which vegetable?

Beetroot

6) Which country has the longest coastline?

Canada

7) If someone from Western Australia talked about 'The Fremantle Doctor' to what would they be referring?

The prevalent cooling sea breeze

8) The Romans referred to this northern town as Lunecastum, but what do we now know it as?

Lancaster

9) The 1960's dispute known as the 'Cod War' took place between which two countries?

The UK and Iceland

10) Americans call it an Alligator Pear, but what is it known as in the UK?

Avocado