

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 339)

2022 General Knowledge

Please support the site, every penny goes to its upkeep ensuring that we are always completely free to use. Thanks

Questions

- 1) What is the collective noun for grass?
- 2) How many degrees do the angles of a quadrilateral add up to?
- 3) What colour is alabaster?
- 4) What paper size is the next biggest after A7?
- 5) Who crossed the Atlantic on his raft RA II in 1970?
- 6) Which beer 'refreshes the parts other beers cannot reach' according to the advert?
- 7) What are jockeys not allowed to have on their face?
- 8) Which nursery rhyme ends with the line 'What a good boy am I'?
- 9) In what field was Terence Donovan famous?
- 10) Cartoonist Reg Smythe created which cartoon character which has featured in the Daily Mirror?

Answers

- 1) What is the collective noun for grass?

Tuft

2) How many degrees do the angles of a quadrilateral add up to?

360

3) What colour is alabaster?

White

4) What paper size is the next biggest after A7?

A6

5) Who crossed the Atlantic on his raft RA II in 1970?

Thor Heyerdahl

6) Which beer 'refreshes the parts other beers cannot reach' according to the advert?

Heineken

7) What are jockeys not allowed to have on their face?

A beard

8) Which nursery rhyme ends with the line 'What a good boy am I'?

Little Jack Horner

9) In what field was Terence Donovan famous?

Photography

10) Cartoonist Reg Smythe created which cartoon character which has featured in the Daily Mirror?

Andy Capp