

General Knowledge Quiz (Round 347)

2022 General Knowledge

Questions:

- 1) What is the name of King Charles III's youngest son?
- 2) Pollo al Ajillo is a Spanish dish consisting of which meat cooked with a generous amount of garlic and white wine?
- 3) Which French architect born in 1887 in Switzerland is now regarded as one of the pioneers of modern architecture?
- 4) Who replaced Rowan Williams as Archbishop of Canterbury in 2013?
- 5) Aliens was the 1986 sequel to which 1979 science fiction horror film?
- 6) Which English cathedral city sits on the banks of the rivers Ouse and Foss?
- 7) Giorgia Meloni first became Prime Minister of which country in October 2022?
- 8) Valletta is the capital of which European island country?
- 9) Parigots is a slang term for people from which European capital city?
- 10) Which English poet was known for his works The Tyger and London?

Answers:

- 1) What is the name of King Charles III's youngest son?

Prince Harry, Duke of Sussex

- 2) Pollo al Ajillo is a Spanish dish consisting of which meat cooked with a generous amount of garlic and white wine?

Chicken

3) Which French architect born in 1887 in Switzerland is now regarded as one of the pioneers of modern architecture?

Le Corbusier

4) Who replaced Rowan Williams as Archbishop of Canterbury in 2013?

Justin Welby

5) Aliens was the 1986 sequel to which 1979 science fiction horror film?

Alien

6) Which English cathedral city sits on the banks of the rivers Ouse and Foss?

York

7) Giorgia Meloni first became Prime Minister of which country in October 2022?

Italy

8) Valletta is the capital of which European island country?

Malta

9) Parigots is a slang term for people from which European capital city?

Paris

10) Which English poet was known for his works The Tyger and London?

William Blake