

The St George's Day Quiz

2024 Countries

Questions

- 1) St George is the patron saint of which country in the UK?
- 2) On what date does England celebrate St Georges date?
- 3) Which hymn is traditionally sung on St Georges Day?
- 4) What form does the flag of St George take?
- 5) Which of the following countries is St George the patron saint, Georgia, Palestine, Portugal, Malta, and England.
- 6) St George was born in which part of the world?
- 7) St George is thought to have died on 23 April of what year?
- 8) How long did St George live in England?
- 9) What profession was St George?
- 10) St George is often depicted slaying a dragon, in what year did he slay one?

Answers

- 1) St George is the patron saint of which country in the UK?
England
- 2) On what date does England celebrate St Georges date?
23 April
- 3) Which hymn is traditionally sung on St Georges Day?
Jerusalem

The St George's Day Quiz

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)

4) What form does the flag of St George take?

A red cross on a white background

5) Which of the following countries is St George the patron saint, Georgia, Palestine, Portugal, Malta, and England.

All of them

6) St George was born in which part of the world?

Middle East, Cappadocia, part of modern day Turkey.

7) St George is thought to have died on 23 April of what year?

303 AD

8) How long did St George live in England?

He never lived there, and in fact never even visited the country.

9) What profession was St George?

A soldier in the Roman army

10) St George is often depicted slaying a dragon, in what year did he slay one?

He didn't - they did not exist.