Name the film from the actor speaking the opening lines.

Orsen Welles - "Rosebud."

Citizen Kane

Natalie Portman - "I had the craziest dream last night. I was dancing the White Swan."

Woody Allen - "Chapter One. He adored New York City. He idolized it all out of proportion. Eh uh, no, make that he, he romanticised it all out of proportion. Better."

Manhattan

Christian Bale - "Are you watching closely? Every magic trick consists of three parts, or acts."

The Prestige

John Mills - "My father's family name being Pirrip, and my Christian name, Phillip, my infant tongue could make of both names nothing longer or more explicit than 'Pip'. So I called myself Pip and came to be called Pip."

John Cusack - What came first, the music or the misery? People worry about kids playing with guns, or watching violent videos, that some sort of culture of violence will take them over. Nobody worries about kids listening to thousands, literally thousands of songs about heartbreak, rejection, pain, misery and loss. Did I listen to pop music because I was miserable? Or was I miserable because I listened to pop music?

Hi Fidelity

Johnny Depp - "We were somewhere around Barstow, on the edge of the desert, when the drugs began to take hold."

Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas

Lee Ermey - "I am Gennery Sargeant Hartman, your senior drill instructor. From now on, you will speak only when spoken to, and the first and last words out of your filthy sewers will be 'Sir!' Do you maggots understand this?"
