

Food and Drink Quiz Round 2

Food and Drink

All questions reviewed and verified August 2020

In cookery what is the term when food is cooked slowly in a small amount of liquid in a tightly covered pan on the hob or in the oven?

Braise

What is the traditional cake originating from Germany and containing cherries, kirsch, and chocolate?

Black Forest cake/gateau

Hakarl is a traditional dish from Iceland, but what type of food is it?

Shark

Metaxa, a liqueur based on brandy blended with wine and flavorings, comes from which country?

Greece

What term is used for a piece of sautéed or rebaked bread, often cubed and seasoned?

Crouton

Raki is flavoured with what?

Anise (aniseed)

What is the difference between a Bourbon Whiskey and a Whisky made in Scotland?

Bourbon is made from corn (maize) rather than a grain.

Cuba Libre is a rum cocktail, but what does Cuba Libre mean in English?

Free Cuba

A macaroon is typically made using which nut?

Almonds

What is the most consumed manufactured drink in the world?

Tea

Food and Drink Quiz Round 2

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)
