

90s Music (Round 10)

Music

Which Gabrielle song spent three weeks at number one in June 1993?

a) Dreams b) Should I Stay c) Stay the Same

a) Dreams

It's considered one of the best albums of the decade but in which year did R.E.M. release their eight studio album 'Automatic for the People'?

a) 1990 b) 1992 c) 1994

b) 1992

'The Colour of My Love' is a 1995 studio album from which singer?

a) Celine Dion b) Shania Twain c) Tina Arena

a) Celine Dion

'...But Seriously' topped the UK Album Charts in February 1990 but which British singer/songwriter released it?

a) Sting b) George Michael c) Phil Collins

c) Phil Collins

They came from Los Angeles and, led by lead singer Gregg Alexander, they had a huge 1998 hit with 'You Get What You Give'. What was their name?

New Radicals

In which year did the Manic Street Preachers release their third studio album 'The Holy Bible'?

a) 1992 b) 1993 c) 1994

c) 1994

Which singer of Trinidadian and German descent was heard around the world thanks to his 1993 track 'What Is Love'?

Haddaway

90s Music (Round 10)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)

The squad of Manchester United collaborated with which British rock group to record 'Come On You Reds' for the 1994 FA Cup Final?

a) Slade b) Chas and Dave c) Status Quo

c) Status Quo

Which group had a 1993 hit with 'Mr. Vain'?

a) Culture Beat b) La Bouche c) Maxx

a) Culture Beat

Complete the name of this well-known songwriting trio: 'Stock Aitken ...?'

Waterman