2016 in UK Politics Quiz (Round 1)

\cap	uiz ot	fthe	Year F	Politics	2016
\sim	uiz oi	LIIC	i Cui i	Ulltica	2010

What is the name given to the study of scientific analysis of elections, made famous by election night analyst John Curtice?

- a) Plutology b) Poliology c) Psephology
- c) Psephology

Which MP challenged, and lost to Jeremy Corbyn in the Labour Party leadership election of 2016?

Owen Smith

By proportion of votes, which area of the country was most in favour of leaving the EU?

- a) Yorkshire and the Humber b) North West England c) West Midlands
- c) West Midlands

In August 2016, Jeremy Corbyn found himself caught up in 'Traingate'. Corbyn was on a train bound for Labour hustings in which English town?

- a) Newcastle b) Norwich c) Southampton
- a) Newcastle

Who succeeded George Osborne as Chancellor following his summer resignation?

Phillip Hammond

What was the name used by 'leave' supporters to describe the alleged scaremongering and pessimism by those wanting to remain in the EU?

Project Fear

Which position in the Conservative government did Theresa May hold prior to becoming Prime Minister?

Home Secretary

Sarah Olney ran as the candidate for which party to beat Zac Goldsmith in the Richmond

2016 in UK Politics Quiz (Round 1)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (http://pubquizquestionshq.com)

Park by	v-election	held	on 1st	December	2016?
			UII = 31	DCCCIIIDCI

Liberal Democrats

The term 'Brexit' is taken from the name used to describe which other European country's exit from the Euro single currency?

Greece (Grexit)

Kenneth Clarke described him as a 'nicer Donald Trump' whilst Ian Hislop said of him: "He's our Berlusconi ... He's the only feel-good politician we have, everyone else is too busy being responsible." - Who were they talking about?

Boris Johnson