

Bill & Ben the Flowerpot Men (Round 93)

General Knowledge

The questions and answers within this quiz were verified and updated in July 2020.

Which State produces the most wine in the U.S after California? a) Washington b) Texas c) New York

a) Washington

There were only 2 successful escape attempts from Devil's Island, the much publicised 2nd escape was described in which book?

Papillon

When the waters of the Pacific Ocean become warmer it is called what?

El Niño

As of 2020, Voyager 2 is the only spacecraft to have flown by which planet?

Neptune

In which English county is Leeds Castle?

Kent

In the childrens series Bill & Ben the Flowerpot Men, what was the name of the tortoise?

Slowcoach

A gift of what is traditionally given for a 20th wedding anniversary?

China

The Cha-cha as we now know it originates from the 1950s in which country?

Cuba

What is the collective name for a group of Owls?

A Parliament

What is the name of the toy, first sold in 1965, which draws intricate curved patterns using interlocking plastic cogs and toothed rings of different sizes.

Spirograph

Bill & Ben the Flowerpot Men (Round 93)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)
