

Surrey Quiz (Round 1)

Countries England 2017

Brookwood, situated near Woking, was once the largest of its type in the world, now the largest in the UK, is what?

A cemetery

Operating from Guildford, what is the name of the company famous for producing buses and fire engines?

Dennis Brothers

Which author served as Deputy Lieutenant of Surrey and used the county as a setting for many of his Sherlock Holmes novels?

Arthur Conan Doyle

Paul Weller was born in this town and used it as his inspiration for the song A Town Called Malice.

Woking

What is the name of the Independent Day and Boarding School situated in Godalming?

Charterhouse.

The Derby, the most prestigious event in British Flat horse racing takes place where?

Epsom Downs Racecourse

Which motorway running across the north west of the county, connects London to Southampton?

The M3

The Bicentenary Glasshouse is in which Royal Horticultural Society Garden?

Wisley