

Terry Wogan Quiz Round

Famous People A to Z Famous People

Questions

- 1) Terry famously hosted 'Wake Up With Wogan' on BBC Radio 2 and lovingly referred to his listeners as TOGs. What did that stand up?
- 2) Which golfing world record did Terry bizarrely set in a pro-celebrity tournament at Gleneagles in 1983?
- 3) Which Scottish band referred to appearing on Terry's chat show in their song 'Dark of the Matinee'?
- 4) Only one person, also a well-known TV personality, managed a slower track time than Terry on Top Gear's 'Star in a Reasonable Priced Car'. Who was it?
- 5) Which Midlands band released the single 'Very Terry Wogan'?
- 6) In which Irish city was Terry born in August 1938?
- 7) What was the name of the BBC outtakes shows that Terry presented for a number of years in the 1990s?
- 8) By which nickname did Terry refer to BBC radio announcer Alan Dedicoat?

Answers

- 1) Terry famously hosted 'Wake Up With Wogan' on BBC Radio 2 and lovingly referred to his listeners as TOGs. What did that stand up?

Terry's Old Geezers/Gals

- 2) Which golfing world record did Terry bizarrely set in a pro-celebrity tournament at Gleneagles in 1983?

Longest televised putt

3) Which Scottish band referred to appearing on Terry's chat show in their song 'Dark of the Matinee'?

Franz Ferdinand

4) Only one person, also a well-known TV personality, managed a slower track time than Terry on Top Gear's 'Star in a Reasonable Priced Car'. Who was it?

Richard Whiteley

5) Which Midlands band released the single 'Very Terry Wogan'?

Rang-a-Tang

6) In which Irish city was Terry born in August 1938?

Limerick

7) What was the name of the BBC outtakes shows that Terry presented for a number of years in the 1990s?

Auntie's Bloomers

8) By which nickname did Terry refer to BBC radio announcer Alan Dedicoat?

Deadly Alancoat