

The Millau Viaduct (Round 178)

General Knowledge 2018

William I was the first of three kings from which House?

House of Normandy

Canadian James Naismith invented which sport?

Basketball

The Millau Viaduct, the tallest bridge in the world, spans the gorge valley of the River Tarn near Millau, in which country?

France

Rickets is caused by a lack of which vitamin?

D

In the book Winnie-the-poo, what was the name of the live rabbit that was Winnie-the-poo's friend?

Rabbit

Which supereon is the earliest period of Earth's history, making up roughly seven-eighths of it?

The Precambrian

On the banks of which river does Glamorgan County Cricket Club's ground stand?

The Taff

Sacramento is the state capital of which state in the USA?

California

Oil of vitriol is an old common name for which dangerous chemical? a) Sodium Hydroxide
b) Nitric acid c) Sulphuric acid

c) Sulphuric acid

Zealand is the largest island of which country?

Denmark