

2018 Gone But Not Forgotten Quiz (Round 3)

2018 General Knowledge Quiz of the Year

Goalkeeper who made 306 appearances for Liverpool up until 1971 and passed away in January this year.

Tommy Lawrence

Considered one of the most influential chefs in the world, he was also an author and television personality and travel documentary maker who took his own life in June

Anthony Bourdain

Celebrity nightclub owner born in Sheffield who was the first club owner to gain a fully nude licence from Westminster City Council

Peter Stringfellow

Much loved TV presenter who hosted the National Lottery 'In it to win it' between 2002 and 2016 as well as the 2008 'Hole in the Wall' game show.

Dale Winton

5 times world champion he was known by his nickname of 'The Crafty Cockney'

Eric Bristow

British theoretical physicist, cosmologist, and author of 'A Brief History of Time' he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the United States

Professor Stephen Hawking

Arguably the best comedian of his generation whose long stand up shows were legendary

Sir Ken Dodd

Dolores O'Riordan who died as a result of accidental drowning in January is best known as lead singer with which band?

The Cranberries

2018 Gone But Not Forgotten Quiz (Round 3)

Published on Pub Quiz Questions HQ (<http://pubquizquestionshq.com>)
